

UCF in Peru | Cross-Cultural Psychology
Dr. Negy's Study Abroad Program
Lima and Cuzco, PERU
2018

Tentative Program Schedule (subject to amendment)

Week One

- Arrival at Lima on Wednesday, July 4th.
- Thursday, July 5th, group will have free time to get acclimated.
- Friday, July 6th, the class will have an “orientation” at the host university (USIL) that will take up the morning of that day.
- Friday, July 6th, we'll have lunch in USIL Culinary School followed by afternoon free time for the group.
- Saturday, July 7th, the class will have an organized City Tour of Lima (will take up ½ the day)
- Sunday, July 8th free time for the group

Week Two

- Monday -- Thursday (July 9th-12th), the group will have class from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. We will arrive back at our hotel by 1:00 p.m. each day and students will have the remainder of the day/evening as free time.
- Thursday, July 12th (or Friday July 13th, if necessary): trip to Iquitos/Amazon
- Return from Iquitos/Amazon Sunday, July 15th.

Week Three

- Same as above, but “free” on Friday (as well as Sat. and Sun.).
- *Any day that 3rd week (Monday through Thursday), Excursion to Museo de Antropologia/Arqueologia/Historia.

Week Four

- We have class Monday (23rd) and Tuesday (24th).
- Wednesday, July 25th, we will fly to Cuzco in the A.M (free day in Cusco).
- Thursday, July 26th, we will take a HALF-day tour of Cuzco and surrounding areas.

- Friday, July 27th, we will go to Aguas Calientes to SPEND ONE NIGHT THERE IN A HOTEL
- Saturday, July 28th (INDEPENDENCE DAY), excursion to Machu Picchu (if “open” on Independent Day). Machu Picchu to be visited in the A.M. (!) (buffet lunch at Toto’s Restaurant BEFORE taking train back to Cusco).
- Saturday, July 28th travel back to Cuzco in the P.M.
- Sunday, July 29th, we fly to Lima, and from there, fly to the U.S.