

The UCF Abroad Global Ambassador Program is an opportunity for students who have participated in a study abroad experience or students with international experience to act as a liaison between fellow students and UCF Abroad. As a Global Ambassador, you will play a critical role in living out the UCF Abroad mission, offering insight to students who are eager to become global citizens.

GLOBAL AMBASSADORS WILL

- » Learn and educate students about the UCF study abroad process
- » Act as a campus contact for UCF Abroad
- » Assist current students in understanding how they can enhance their own international experience and competitive edge in the global market
- » Plan and lead semester events

Our ideal ambassador is enthusiastic about global education and enriching cultural experiences, involved in the international community at UCF, and possesses a distinct perspective that identifies with students interested in studying abroad. Ambassadors will have the opportunity to enhance their professional development, leadership and communications skills, and community involvement. In addition, they will be granted access to an evolving network of UCF Global Ambassadors around the world!

REQUIREMENTS

- » Attend all required training before assuming responsibilities
- » Attend and assist UCF Abroad staff during the Study Abroad Fair
- » Assist in presenting Study Abroad 101 presentations each semester
- » Participate in tabling events each semester
- » Attend monthly Global Ambassador meetings (first Tuesday of every month)
- » Must attend at least four events per semester to remain an active member within the program
- » Must actively attend all meetings associated with UCF Abroad
- » Must maintain a GPA of at least 2.75
- » Be in good academic and disciplinary standing with the University
- » Commitment to two consecutive semesters as Global Ambassador is preferred
