The course below is offered by the partner institution as part of a UCF approved study abroad program. A Syllabus accompanies this form. Credit transfer is guaranteed from this governmentally accredited institution. Having a UCF course equivalency on file can help a student and their advisor better decide how or if course work will work into their academic plans.

Title(s) of the course abroad	Value and Units abroad	Equivalent UCF Credit Hours
Language of instruction: ___ English _____ Name other language:
Prerequisites:

The above course will be considered as follows (select one):

An exact equivalent substitution for: (Please write the appropriate UCF Prefix, Number and Title as listed on the UCF schedule)	_____ # _____ Title as listed in catalog ex: PHY 3101 Physics for Engineers and Scientists III

OR

If no direct equivalent to an existing UCF course exists, IAGS suggests that the course above be assigned an equivalent using an appropriate prefix from the academic unit, an appropriate level (2000,3000,4000) and a title. All Florida SUS prefixes can be associated with the _955 designation as "Study Abroad: Title of Course".

Not a direct equivalent to an existing UCF course but credit can be earned in: (prefix) # 955: Study Abroad: Title	_____ 955 Study Abroad: _____ Title (prefix) # _____ Title ex: GER 3955: Study Abroad: German Language for Engineers
